A black and white illustration of a character on a cliff edge overlooking the ocean. The character is a small, dark silhouette of a person with a backpack, standing on the very edge of a dark, jagged cliff. The cliff face is dark and textured, with some drips or stalactites hanging from the bottom. To the right of the character, there are silhouettes of palm trees and other tropical vegetation. The background is a light gray sky with a large, bright sun or moon in the upper left corner. The ocean is visible below the cliff, with white-capped waves breaking against the shore. In the foreground, there are large, dark silhouettes of tropical plants, including what looks like a hibiscus flower. The overall style is minimalist and graphic, using high contrast between black, white, and gray.
